
PRESS RELEASE

Quest Staffing Services acquires Britestar Recruiting

A Taylorsville Utah Staffing Company has recently acquired Britestar Recruiting, a Utah based direct hire solutions company. The President and CEO of Quest Staffing Services said “Our mission is to provide exceptional candidates who bring genuine value to your business. We understand this critical link, and we are dedicated to helping you find, hire, and retain the talent that can deliver upon these needs..”

Britestar's recruiting team has over 40 years combined experience in executive job search and contract employee placement. We align candidates with clients in professional and executive positions. Knowledgeable and well-connected executive recruiters can help deliver lasting business success and maintain strategic relationships with industry leaders.

In the uncertainty of today's business climate, let Britestar be your bridge connecting our professional talent with your company's demand.

“Our goal is to deliver the recruitment results you require--driving lasting business success”

Britestar places the ideal candidate in the right opportunity, blending proven recruiting methods with the highest levels of ethics and professionalism. Britestar is your trusted advisor.

“Our Success is Measured By Yours, One Placement at a Time”
